CHAPTER 397.

AN ACT providing for the application of the surplus in the state treasury as a portion of the state tax levy in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Surplus in treasury may be applied on tax levy.

SECTION 1. Whenever in the opinion of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer or a majority of the aforesaid officials, the surplus in the state treasury will, without detriment to the public service permit the same, or so much thereof as may be by them deemed proper, shall be applied as a portion of the state tax levy in each year, the balance of said state tax levy after deducting the amount above provided for shall be apportioned in the same manner as now provided
